Mission Statement

The FDAA will nourish and grow its membership by encouraging teaching practice and sharing of knowledge of Folk and Decorative Art. It will also provide an environment for all members to develop and express their creativity.

The FDAA will act with respect and be a mentor to all members and potential members to ensure Folk and Decorative Art remains the common focus, as well as providing activities to allow strong contacts and friendship forum.

Member Benefits

We are a not for profit organisation – all proceeds raised are used for the benefit of the members and selected charities.

Classes, Workshops & Demonstrations are held at various locations.

Exhibitions, Competitions & Awards for member participation.

Sale Venues are provided a minimum of twice-yearly to allow members to sell their work with the FDAA taking 20% commission on sales to defray costs.

Bi-Monthly Meetings – with interesting guest speakers or painting workshops.

Conventions – a live-in convention is held every second year at differing locations. Classes cover all levels of expertise.

Newsletters are published quarterly. Members are encouraged to submit articles of general interest and paid advertising space is available.

Teachers - the FDAA endeavours to supply the names of teachers for areas where they are requested.

The FDAA has a recognised Teachers Accreditation Programme.

Promotions & Publicity – every opportunity is used to promote Folk and Decorative Art by means of exhibitions, arts and craft fairs, media, etc.

Volunteers – the FDAA functions through the efforts of member volunteers.
